

Special Collections Research Center guide

SCRC website: Start your search here! Find materials across all of our collection guides, digitized collections, Historical State Timelines, blog posts, and more.

Collection Guides: Find boxes and folders of materials you may want to request to research in person.

Digitized collections: Explore digitized collections, including documents, photographs, audio and video, and more.

Historical State Timelines: A great jumping off point for research on NC State University history! Find out information about the history of different topics and communities at NC State.

Contact us: We're happy to help you with questions about your research. Reach out with your research questions or schedule a virtual reference consultation for more support.

- To request materials to view in person in our reading room in D.H. Hill Library: Using the contact form, list the collection number and the box/folder numbers for the materials you'd like to see.
- Using Materials: Review current Covid restrictions in the Libraries and how to plan your research visit if you'd like to view materials in person.
- If you're not sure where to start, or you'd like to meet with us virtually to get more support with your research, request a virtual reference consultation through the contact form.
